

Rotary Club of Renton selects Renton Teachers of the Month for October

As part of their commitment to education, and to celebrate teachers in the Renton School District, each month members of the Rotary Club of Renton selects three teachers as Teachers of the Month.

As part of the recognition, teachers attend Rotary's Teacher of the Month recognition luncheon held At Maplewood Golf Course. Each teacher is introduced, makes a brief comment about their school and classroom, and receives $200 to be used for classroom supplies, or instructional materials.

Erica Anderson is a fourth grade teacher at Highlands Elementary. Erica majored in Elementary Education and English at North Park University in Chicago, Illinois. She also attended the University of Washington and earned a Masters of Education degree in Curriculum and Instruction, with a focus on Language, Literacy and Culture. Erica has been a teacher in Renton for five years.

Janet Schultz is a sixth grade special education teacher at Nelsen Middle School. Janet attended University of Memphis where she earned a Bachelors degree in Outdoor Recreation. She continued her education at the University of Memphis and received a Masters degree in Special Education. Before teaching, Janet worked several years as a Park Ranger in various national parks around the country. This is Janet's 17th year teaching in Renton.

Mike Oliver is a Program Facilitator at Renton Academy. Mike attended the University of Rhode Island and earned a Bachelors in Elementary Education and Psychology. He continued his education at the University of Washington to earn a Masters degree in Education. Before joining the Renton School District, Mike worked in a group home for children with emotional and behavioral challenges. This is Mike's ninth year teaching in Renton.
